Vivian Liu

Law Clerk

Vivian Liu specializes in corporate transactions, corporate governance, and U.S. securities matters, with four years of experience advising companies, investors, underwriters, and financial institutions. Her experience spans venture and growth-stage financings, mergers and acquisitions, U.S. capital markets transactions, and public company compliance. She has worked on initial public offerings, de-SPAC transactions, pre-IPO financings, going-private transactions, and other general corporate matters, and regularly assists with transaction execution, diligence, board and shareholder approvals, and disclosure-related work.

Prior to joining ILS, Vivian worked at a boutique law firm in New York and an international law firm in Beijing, where she advised public companies, emerging companies, underwriters, and investors on a wide range of corporate and securities matters.

Representative Matters
