

Casey Movsessian, Esq.

Of Counsel

Casey specializes in Landlord & Tenant law and Eviction law. Casey utilizes a practical, cost-conscious approach to deliver personalized and comprehensive counseling for every client matter.

Casey began his legal career as a legal clerk at the Stanley Mosk Courthouse in Los Angeles. Casey then clerked and worked pro bono for multiple nonprofit organizations in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C. Prior to joining ILS, Casey worked for one of the largest law firms in Los Angeles as a litigation defense attorney and later founded his own legal practice, where he worked on all aspects of his cases from inception to trial. His extensive and hands-on experience, including from the side of the court, allows him to analyze each client's case in-depth to provide tailored solutions for each new matter.

Casey believes a successful representation is built on complete trust by the client. He is an attorney that goes above and beyond to meet clients' objectives.
