

harry.huang@consultils.com
Los Angeles

SERVICES FOCUS

Employment Discrimination and Harassment

Wage and Hour

Commercial Litigation

BAR ADMISSION

- California

LANGUAGE

- English
- Mandarin Chinese

ACADEMIC

- J.D., George Washington University
- B.S., University of Wisconsin, Madison

Harry Huang, Esq.

Associate

Harry is a litigation associate focusing on employment litigation (single plaintiff and wage and hour class action) as well as commercial litigation.

Harry brings enthusiasm and dedication to delivering exceptional legal services for clients facing complex legal challenges. His diverse legal foundation was built through meaningful experience with the state attorney general's office and collaborative work with pro bono organizations during law school, experiences that shaped his commitment to accessible and effective legal representation.

Harry's practice spans employment law litigation and commercial litigation, where he skillfully navigates cases in both federal and state courts. He has experience in drafting pre-trial motions and strategic discovery motions. His meticulous approach to case preparation, combined with sharp analytical skills, enables him to identify key legal issues and develop thoughtful strategies that serve his clients' best interests.

Whether advocating for employees facing workplace disputes or representing businesses in commercial litigation matters, Harry approaches each case with the same thorough research methodology and strategic thinking.