

Roy Wang, Esq.

Associate

Roy specializes in corporate, compliance, regulatory matters, and financing transactions, with extensive experience in implementing business strategies, navigating complex regulatory frameworks and executing finance transactions.

Building on this expertise, Roy has advised clients on navigating intricate legal frameworks and executing complex financing transactions while driving effective business strategies. With a distinguished career that began at a Magic Circle firm, Roy gained over five years of broad experience across key practice areas, including derivatives and structured finance, financial regulation, and international commercial arbitration. These experiences have established him as a trusted advisor in cross-border financing and regulatory compliance.

Roy's extensive global professional experience allows him to provide insightful, strategic guidance on complex legal matters with both local and international implications.
